MEN of Spondon who answered the call,
And fought in the war so bitter and long,
We remember you went with heads erect
And a smile, and a song.

Many a dreary day you lived,
Weary roads you footed along;
Deeds of valour you did unseen
With a smile, and a song.

And those that fell and are here no more,
Who gave their all to right a wrong,
We know they stuck it to the last
With a smile, and a song.

Now Peace is here; and its up to us all,
The old, the young, the weak, the strong,
To smooth the roughness war has left
With a smile, and a song.
